The National Consortium for the Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism (START) is dedicated to training and mentoring a new generation of terrorism scholars and analysts. Students completing this program will be capable of examining questions related to the behavior of terrorists and terrorist groups and to the issue of how societies can best prepare for dealing with a terrorist threat or responding to a terrorist attack. The program is appropriate for individuals interested in (and/or currently) working in fields related to intelligence analysis, homeland security analysis, or analysis of other relevant topic areas; and individuals interested in (and/or currently) conducting scholarly research on terrorism and responses to terrorism. The program can be completed in as little as nine months to two years.

Eligible applicants must have:
- No GRE is required.
- A 3.0 GPA or equivalent experience.

Requirements:
- A 4-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited university or an equivalent foreign university.
- A 3.0 GPA or equivalent experience.
- No GRE is required.

Tuition:
- $2,100 per course.

For additional information, visit: www.start.umd.edu
Phone: 301.405.6600
Email: education@start.umd.edu