

RUTGERS

School of Arts and Sciences

Tutoring Program

The School of Arts and Sciences Honors Program (SASHP), in collaboration with the Rutgers Honors College and the Rutgers Learning Centers, is pleased to offer free one-on-one tutoring to Rutgers students!

Tutoring is available to all New Brunswick undergraduates during the fall and spring semesters. Through the SASHP Tutoring Program, Honors students volunteer their time and knowledge to tutor Rutgers students needing help in a wide range of academic subjects. Tutoring Program tutors choose the subjects in which they can offer assistance and the time availabilities they wish to contribute to the program.

For more information about the Tutoring Program, please contact Mrs. Mary Jo Zachary by phone: (848) 932-1406 or email: mzachary@sas.rutgers.edu

Visit the Tutoring Program's webpage!
<http://www.sashonors.rutgers.edu/student-life/tutoring-project>

To register for tutoring, scan here:

-OR-

1. Go to <http://lrc.rutgers.edu/>
2. Under "Services" select "Peer Tutoring," and then "One-on-One Tutoring."
3. Go to the bottom line under "One-on-One Tutoring" and click the appointment link.
4. Log in, select your subject, and make a selection from the list of available appointments.

∞ A Joint Initiative of the SAS Honors Program and Rutgers Honors College ∞

RUTGERS

Honors College | New Brunswick

RLC
Rutgers Learning Center