COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will look at the relationship between police officers and the communities they serve with an emphasis on ethical standards, human relations, civil rights and community service. There will be a focus on how gangs, drugs, violence and technology have changed policing in our communities. This course we will also concentrate on how the attitudes and actions of the police and the public help to define and build relationships.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Discuss the historical development of the police function since the medieval times, including the key political and social forces that shaped policing, and the police role in modern society as the visible representative of the government.
2. Analyze and discuss major challenges in police management, such as gangs, drugs and also violence. (Students will be challenged to explore and discuss solutions and strategies to these problems)
3. Describe how new technologies are assisting police with law enforcement.

REQUIRED READING

1) Policing America by Ken Peak 8th edition(2013). Pearson. ISBN: 9780122495652

2) Throughout the course you may also be required to read numerous journal articles, for which you will be responsible. Most will be provided to you, others you will be expected to retrieve.

RECOMMENDED READING

1) American Street Gangs by Tim Delaney 2nd edition(2013). Pearson. ISBN: 9780133056051

Course Requirements:

1. Students should attend all class sessions and participate in class discussions.
2. Students are expected to complete all reading assignments on time.
Class lectures will not necessarily repeat the content of the reading assignments. Students are responsible for class notes and handouts if a class is missed.
3. There will be Two Quizzes (25%), a Mid-Term Exam (25%), and a Final Exam (25%),

4. Class presentation (15%) and class participation, which will include class attendance (10%).

1) Attendance & Participation

Participation and attendance are required and mandatory. Every unexcused missed class session will result in a deduction of 2 points off your final grade. You are expected to have the material read for the respective class. Failing to provide sufficient answers to posed questions will result in a score of zero for that day's participation. Students are expected to fully participate in the lectures and will be called on regularly.

2) Reading Material

If participation and feedback on readings suffers, pop quizzes will be given sporadically.

3) Quizzes, Final Exam and Midterm Exam

The quizzes and exams will be multiple choice or essay, depending on the size of the class. You will know this within the first two weeks of class. The final exam may or may not be cumulative.

Exams will ONLY be rescheduled for an emergency and ONLY with appropriate documentation.

4) Newspaper Article Review/Presentation

The class presentation will be a write-up and presentation of a newspaper article dealing with an issue pertinent to Law Enforcement in the community. This article can range anywhere in the topic of gangs, drugs, violence and technology. If someone presents a newspaper article on something before you, please refrain from choosing the same article. Hard copy newspaper articles can be searched, as well as outlets like the New York Times and the Washington Post, which would allow you to search by key word.

NO WIKIPEDIA. The article should be attached to your type-written summation.

Students should outline the problem or topic in the article and depending on the content should offer suggestions, opinions or remedies- DO NOT SIMPLY REGURGITATE THE ARTICLE. The class should also pay attention to grammar, spelling and content, as this contributes to your grade. A sign-up sheet will be provided early in the semester and late assignments will not be accepted. Presentation of this newspaper article and your opinions and suggestions are expected to last FIVE MINUTES to SEVEN MINUTES. Practice and Time yourself prior to presenting. The timing of your presentation will also contribute to your grade. Also, once a day is chosen, it cannot be changed. Write down your date, if you miss it for any reason you will receive a zero for that grade.
